

Biography
Anthony N. Sabga III

Anthony N Sabga III is the Chief Executive Officer of the ANSA McAL Group of Companies and the Chairman of the Caribbean Development Company. Having completed his Bachelor of Science Degree in Economics at City University, United Kingdom, in 2001, Anthony began his career with the Group at Trinidad Publishing Company (now Guardian Media Ltd) as the Promotions and Circulations Manager. In 2002, Anthony returned to the United Kingdom to pursue his Masters in International Business Administration at Regents Business School, which he completed in 2003. Upon his return to Trinidad, Anthony took up the role of an Executive at Head Office and was responsible for Strategic Development of the Group's IT Infrastructure, as well as the introduction of the Balanced Score Card and Strategic Management Frameworks. He went on to hold positions of General Manager at Classic Motors and President of Carib Beer USA. After several different roles throughout the Group, Anthony returned to ANSA McAL's Head Office in Trinidad and Tobago in 2010. Anthony has held several directorships both within and external to the ANSA McAL Group.