The Event

IconETech-2020, organised by the Faculty of Engineering, The University of the West Indies, St. Augustine will seek multidisciplinary approaches to achieve sustainable development goals (SDGs) for the Caribbean region by fostering and disseminating innovative research. In addition to the technical paper presentations, this conference will feature several pre and post events such as keynote speeches by eminent persons in the field and plenary sessions to discuss the developments in technology, and the challenges in its implementation. This international forum would provide an excellent opportunity to build networks among the stakeholders and establish peer to peer collaboration around the world.

Target Audience

- Engineers
- Researchers
- Educators
- Scientists
- Practitioners
- Government Officials
- Managers
- Policy Makers
- Business Owners
- Students
- Financial Institutions
