CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

GUIDELINES

FORECAST Conference 2026 - Guidelines for Abstract Submission

Science and Innovation for a Sustainable Caribbean

Authors are kindly requested to follow all instructions carefully when preparing and submitting their abstracts.

1. Abstract Content

- Word Limit: Maximum of 250 words.
- Language: Abstracts must be written in clear and concise English.
- Structure: A single, continuous paragraph is preferred. The abstract should succinctly include:
 - Background/Introduction
 - Objectives
 - Methods/Approach
 - Key Results
 - Conclusions/Implications
- Originality: Submissions must present original and unpublished work and should not have been presented at other conferences prior to FORECAST 2026.
- Relevance: The content should align with the conference theme, Science and Innovation for a Sustainable Caribbean.

2. Formatting Requirements

All abstracts must follow the “Scientific Reports” (<https://www.nature.com/srep/>) formatting style:

Element	Requirement
Font	Bookman Old Style
Font Size	12 pt
Line Spacing	Single
Alignment	Justified
Margins	Standard (2.54 cm / 1 inch on all sides)
Word Count	Maximum 250 words

3. Title

- Use Title Case (capitalize the first letter of major words).
- Bold formatting should be applied to the title.
- Avoid abbreviations and acronyms unless they are widely recognized.

Example:

Nature-based Solutions as Building Blocks for Coastal Flood Risk Reduction: A Model-Based Ecosystem Service Assessment

4. Authors and Affiliations

- List all authors immediately below the title.
- The presenting author’s name must be in bold.
- Use superscript numbers to link authors to their respective affiliations.
- Include full institutional affiliations: department, institution, city, and country.
- Provide the email address of the corresponding author.
- Indicate the corresponding author with an asterisk (*).

Example:

Massimiliano Marino^{1*}, Martin J. Baptist², Ahmad I. K. Alkharoubi², Sofia Nasca¹, Luca Cavallaro¹, Enrico Foti¹ & Rosaria Ester Musumeci¹

¹Department of Civil Engineering and Architecture, University of Catania, Via Santa Sofia 64, Catania, Italy.

²Wageningen Marine Research, Wageningen University and Research, Den Helder, The Netherlands.

Email: massimiliano.marino@unict.it

5. Keywords

- Provide 5-6 keywords that accurately represent the main topics of the research.
- Separate keywords with commas.
- Avoid repeating words already used in the title.

Example: Nature-based solutions, coastal flooding, ecosystem services, climate adaptation, numerical modelling.

6. Figures, Tables, and References

- Figures and Tables: Not permitted in the abstract.
- References: Should be avoided.

7. Presentation Type

Authors may indicate their preferred mode of presentation during submission:

- Oral Presentation
- Poster Presentation

The final decision will be made by the Scientific Committee.

8. Submission Process

- Submission Platform:
Abstracts must be submitted via the official submission form:
 <https://bit.ly/FORECASTabstractsubmission>
- Deadline for Submission:
July 31, 2026
- Confirmation:
Authors will receive an automatic confirmation email upon successful submission.

9. Review and Notification

- All abstracts will undergo peer review by the Scientific Committee.
- Evaluation criteria include:
 - Relevance to the conference theme
 - Scientific merit and originality
 - Methodological rigor
 - Clarity and coherence
- Notification of Acceptance: Authors will be informed via email following the review process.

10. Presentation and Registration

- At least one author must register for the conference to have the abstract included in the programme and conference proceedings.
- The presenting author is expected to deliver the oral or poster presentation.
- A maximum of two abstracts will be accepted for any first author to ensure a broad representation of research across the fields.

11. Ethical Considerations

- Authors must ensure that all co-authors have approved the submission.
- Necessary ethical approvals (where applicable) should be obtained before submission.
- Any conflicts of interest should be disclosed during submission.
